

Recent Events:

A big thanks to Dr. Ezra Boyd for taking the time to demonstrate his real-time mapping site DisasterMap.net at our May Lunch & Learn series. We enjoyed a large turnout at both the May presentation and at our LaURISA Social hours.

Upcoming Events:

Come join our next LaURISA Workshop "ArcGIS Online", presented by David Alford, GISP on Thursday, June 29th. The workshop will be held from 8:30a to 4:30p at the West Baton Rouge Homeland Security Emergency Preparedness and 911 Center, located at 2413 Ernest Wilson Drive in Port Allen. Be sure to register before hand to guarantee a lunch and seat. Registration cost is $100 and includes a one-year membership to LaURISA. Register here.

Happy Hour Socials will be held on different dates this month. The Baton Rouge Social will follow the workshop on Thursday, June 29th, and will be held at The Bulldog, 4385 Perkins Road, from 5:30-7:30p. The New Orleans Social will be held on Wednesday, June 28th at Mid-City Yacht Club, 440 South St. Patrick Street, from 5:30-7:30p.

Other Items of Importance:

- LaURISA would like to ask for your help in planning our fall workshop. Please take a moment to answer our one-question survey on workshop cost. Link here.
- URISA President Tripp Corbin's Annual GIS Certification Survey is now available. If you could please take a couple minutes to take the survey, we would be grateful for your time and response. One need not be a GISC to participate. Survey here.
- 2017 GIS in Transit Conference will be held September 6-8 in Washington D.C. This conference will bring experts from around the country on how GIS is being used every day to improve transit systems. Click here for more info.
- 2017 GIS Pro Conference will be held October 23-26 in Jacksonville, FL. Participants will share best practices for GIS management and leadership, professional development, certification, and much more. Click here for more info.
